Sermon Notes for May 7th, 2023

"God is for Us!"

Sermon Text: Romans 8:28-39 (p. 1201-1202); Old Testament Text: Jeremiah 31:31-34(pp. 837-838); Gospel text: John 14:25-27 (p. 1147).

Read the Sermon Text from Romans 8:28-39 (p. 1201-1202) while listening to the sermon, then, answer the questions below.

1. Read Romans 8:28. Then, fill in the blanks: And we know that for those who _____ God all things work together for _____, for those who are called according to his _____.
2. Read Romans 8:29. Who is Paul describing in this verse?

When Paul says God predestined those He foreknew does this mean God decides who will go to heaven and who will go to hell?

What does it mean?

3. Read Romans 8:30. Then, fill in the blanks: And those whom he _____ he also _____, and those whom he called he also _____, and those whom he justified he also _____.

Who does God use to call us and to glorify us?

By whom are we justified?

4. Read Romans 8:31. What does this verse mean to you?

Does it encourage you or discourage you?

5. Read Romans 8:32. Why should this verse encourage all of us?

6. Read Romans 8:33-34. If we are seeking to live for Jesus, will God ever condemn us?

How do we know Jesus is on our side? (Look at the last part of Roman 8:34. What does it say Jesus is doing on our behalf?)

7. Read Romans 8:35-39? Is there anything that can separate us from the love of Christ?

Why should that give us tremendous confidence?

8. What will you remember most from this message?
