Sermon Notes for July 31, 2022

“Living for the Least of These”

Sermon Text: Matthew 25:31-46 (page 1036); Old Testament Text: Psalm 34:19-22; New Testament Text: Romans 12:9-13.

Open your pew Bible to Matthew 25:31-46 on p. 1036, and as you listen to the sermon, answer the questions below.

1. What do you think it will be like to be in the presence of Christ's glory and majesty when He returns?

Do you think this will be a pleasurable experience or a terrifying one?

2. What will all people, even unbelievers, be compelled to do when Jesus returns?
3. Why were sheep ideal symbols for those who were being saved and goats ideal symbols for those who were perishing?
4. Why is it significant that those who are being saved will be at the right hand of Jesus?
5. How does Jesus tell us He will judge among the sheep and the goats?

6. Does this mean we are saved because of our works? Look up Ephesians 2:8-10 (p. 1242) and use these verses to justify your answer?

7. Why do you think the sheep were unaware they had ministered to Jesus when they ministered to the poor and the needy?

What does that say about the sheep's heart and Jesus's heart?

8. What prevented the goats from seeing the needs of others around them?

9. What is your take home from this message?
